TERMS OF TRADE

The term "the Company" refers to E.C.Attwood. The term "the Buyer" refers to the person, firm or company with whom the Company enters into a contract of sale.

ORDERS

All orders placed with the Company are accepted on the basis of these terms. No variation of these terms will apply unless accepted in writing by the company.

QUOTATIONS

Where a quotation is given by the Company for the price of goods, the quotation shall be valid for 30 days from the date of issue, but the Company may withdraw the quotation at any time. Goods and Services Tax will be charged in addition to any quoted price.

DELIVERY

Delivery will be deemed complete when the goods are taken from the Company's premises, transported to the Buyers premises or to the place agreed by the Company in its quotation or acceptance. The Company will not be liable for any failure to deliver at the agreed time. The Company reserves the right to deliver goods in instalments, and each instalment is deemed to be a separate contract under the same provisions as the main contract.

CLAIMS AND RETURNS

Goods are supplied subject to all conditions, warranties and limitations implied by law, provided however, that the extent of the Company's liability shall be limited to replacement of faulty materials only. Except as provided by statute, the company will not be liable for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly from the goods provided by the company, beyond the price of those goods. Any claims and requests for credit must be made within 14 days of invoicing. In each case, the relevant invoice numbers must be quoted and an authorization for return number, must be obtained from the Company and quoted on all documentation returned with the goods. If the Company does allow a return of goods, the Company reserves the right to charge a restocking fee.

PAYMENT

The Buyer will pay for all goods bought from the Company by the 20th of the month following delivery. The Buyer will pay or reimburse all costs and expenses incurred by the Company's solicitor or debt-collecting agency to recover any amounts overdue for payment, and will pay 1.5% per month or part month on the overdue debt from due date to payment date.

TITLE AND SECURITY (PERSONAL PROPERTY SECURITIES ACT 1999:"THE ACT")

Until all sums due to the Company by the Buyer have been paid in full, the Buyer expressly agrees the Company has a purchase money security interest in all goods to secure payment of the purchase price of those goods and any other sums owing. The Buyer waives the right to receive verification of registration of this security interest, and its rights under sections 120 and 121 of the Act. The Company's security interest in the goods continues in any new goods into which those goods are attached, fixed or incorporated, and in any proceeds, book debts or accounts receivable arising from the sale of the goods. The Buyer gives irrevocable authority to the company to enter any premises occupied by the Buyer or on which goods are situated at any reasonable time after default by the Buyer (or before default if the Company believes default is likely) and to remove and repossess any goods and any other property to which the goods are attached or in which goods are incorporated.

COLLECTION AND USE OF INFORMATION

The Buyer authorises the Company to collect, retain and use any information about the Buyer for the purpose of assessing the Buyer's credit worthiness, enforcing any rights under these terms and conditions, or marketing any goods and services by the Company to the Buyer or any other party. The Buyer authorizes the company to disclose any information obtained to any person for the purposes set out in the foregoing clause. Where the Buyer is a natural person the authorities under the two foregoing clauses are authorities or consents for the purpose of the Privacy Act 1993.

The Customer consents to the electronic storage and retrieval of all documents and papers generated in the course of the relationship and transactions between the Customer and Attwoods.

LAWS OF NEW ZEALAND

The contract evidenced by these terms is governed by the laws of New Zealand. If goods acquired by the Buyer are for business purposes, the Buyer agrees that the Consumer Guarantees Act does not apply.
